.....RESPONDENTS

Petition under Article 226 of the constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the Affidavit filed herein the High Court may be pleased to issue a Writ or Order or Direction more particularly a Writ of Mandamus, declaring the action of the 1st respondent-University in not declaring the results of the petitioner and insisting him to obtain directions for declaration of the Results of the petitioner and insisting him obtain directions for declaration of the results from this Hon'bel Court for every year/Semester as illegal, arbitrary and voilative of the Petitioners right.

Counsel for the Petitioner: MR.R.M.REDDY

Counsel for the Respondents: MR.K.RAMAKANTHA REDDY , SC FOR OSMANIA UNIVERSITY

The Court made the following:

ORDER:

The petitioner seeks to issue a Writ of Mandamus declaring the action of the 1st respondent-University in not declaring the results of the petitioner and insisting him to obtain directions from this Court for every year/semester for declaration of the results of the petitioner, as illegal and arbitrary.

This Court, on 27.03.1998, while admitting the writ petition granted interim direction to declare the results of the petitioner in respect of the second year first semester and two subjects in first year held in December, 1997, pending further orders.

Today, when the matter is taken up for hearing, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner is neither present nor there is any representation on his behalf.

Recording the said submission, the writ petition is dismissed as having become infructuous.
